Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting principles used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of NNEMAP, Inc. as of December 31, 2020, and the changes in its net assets, its cash flows and its functional expenses for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited NNEMAP, Inc.'s 2019 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated July 13, 2020. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended December 31, 2019, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

NNEMAP, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2020 and 2019

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization and Nature of Activities

NNEMAP Inc. (the “Organization”) helps their neighbors enhance their lives, health and self-sufficiency through access to nutritious food and other resources.

Accrual Basis

The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and accordingly reflect all receivables, payables, and other assets and liabilities. Using this method, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Basis of Presentation

The Organization has adopted Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 2016-14, “Not-For-Profit Entities – Revenue Recognition”. In accordance with ASC 2016-14, contributions received are recorded as increases in net assets without donor restrictions and net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions.

The Organization has also adopted ASC 958-10-65-1, “Not-For-Profit Entities – Presentation of Financial Statements”. Under ASC 958-10-65-1, The Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets that are based upon the existence or absence of restrictions on use that are placed by its donors: net assets without donor restrictions, and net assets with donor restrictions.

Net assets without donor restrictions are resources available to support operations and not subject to donor restrictions. The only limits on the use of net assets without donor restrictions are the broad limits resulting from the nature of the Organization, the environment in which it operates, the purposes specified in its corporate documents and its application for tax-exempt status, and any limits resulting from contractual agreements with creditors and others that are entered into in the course of its operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions are resources that are subject to donor-imposed restrictions. Some restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that are restricted by a donor for use for a particular purpose or in a particular future period. Other restrictions may be perpetual in nature; such as those that are restricted by a donor that the resources be maintained in perpetuity.

For the period ending December 31, 2020 the ASU 958 (Updated) has modified the revenue recognition regarding contribution, which are effective for the reporting year beginning January 1, 2020. The modified standard stipulates that a contribution is recognized as unconditional and therefore recognized as revenue if any donor-imposed conditions are met (barriers and right of return to contributor or release from obligation by the donor.) NNEMAP believes that all contributions recognized meet the modified standards as unconditional. Prior to implementation of ASU 958 (Update) the organization was recognizing its revenue under the originally issued ASU 958.

Receivables

Receivables are stated at the amount the Organization expects to collect from outstanding balances. When considered necessary, the Organization provides for probable uncollectible amounts through a provision for bad debt expense and an adjustment to a valuation allowance based on its assessment of the current status of individual accounts. Balances that are still outstanding after the Organization has used reasonable collection efforts are written off through a charge to the valuation allowance and a credit to receivables. The Organization considers all receivables to be fully collectible and, accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is reflected in the financial statements. Additionally, there is no bad debt expense recorded in the financial statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Organization considers all unrestricted highly liquid investments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Purchased capital assets are carried at cost. Donated capital assets are carried at the fair market value of the assets donated on the date the donation is made. Depreciation is computed based on the estimated useful life of the assets using the straight-line method. When capital assets are sold or retired, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts with any gain or loss reflected in operations. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. The Board of the Organization has adopted policy of capitalizing all fixed asset purchases in excess of $750.

Estimates

The process of preparing financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the use of estimates and assumptions regarding certain types of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Such estimates primarily relate to unsettled transactions and events as of the date of the financial statements. Accordingly, upon settlement, actual results may differ from estimated amounts.

Donated Assets and Services

Donated investments and other noncash donations are recorded as contributions at their fair values at the date of donation. Donated services are recognized as contributions if the services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Organization. The Organization receives numerous volunteer hours that are not recognized as contributions as they do not meet the recognition criteria nor does the Organization believe the fair value of the services are reasonably determinable. The use of the donated in-kind food and other assistance items is recognized as Distributions on the Statement of Functional Expenses.

Inventory

The Organization maintains an inventory of food and small personal items to provide to its clients. The items are received as donations from Mid-Ohio Foodbank, local community, and retail establishments. The Organization uses a benchmark derived from an independent accounting firm's engagement with Mid-Ohio Foodbank to value its inventory, unless a different value is provided by the donor. The Organization valued inventory at $1.73 per pound for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and $1.73 at 2019, which the Organization believes is reasonable and comparable to the aforementioned benchmark.

Expense Allocation

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the Statement of Activities and in the Statement of Functional Expenses. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Federal Income Tax

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Organization may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position.

Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Organization and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

The Organization files its forms 990 in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and the office of the state's attorney general for the State of Ohio. The Organization is generally no longer subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for years before December 31, 2015

NNEMAP, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2020 and 2019

Note 2 – Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Organization receives a significant amount of its revenue through contributed food and toiletries. Mid-Ohio Food Bank provided $1,273,232 and $1,040,100 of contributions to this end during the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. The contributions represent approximately 56% and 63% of revenue for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, respectively. In addition, the Organization also purchased items from Mid-Ohio Food Bank at a significant discount. These purchases amount to approximately $24,238 and $38,638 for the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019.

The Organization maintains cash accounts which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) up to $250,000 per banking institution. As of December 31, 2020, The Organization had deposits in excess of the FDIC limit by $138,892. As of December 31, 2019, the cash balances remained under this limit.

Note 3 - Advertising

The Organization uses advertising to promote its programs among the audiences it serves. The production costs of advertising are expensed as incurred. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, advertising expense was not significant.

Note 4 – Note Payable

In April 2015, the Organization took out a $192,500, 20-year, 5% variable rate loan from Liberty National Bank to help purchase a property to be used for operations. The note stipulates that the interest rate can go no lower than 5% and no higher than 11%. As of December 31, 2020, the rate was 5.5%. Following is a schedule of principal payments for each of the next five years, as of December 31, 2020, under this loan agreement:

2021	8,709
2022	9,155

Notes to the Financial Statements

Note 5 – Fair Value of Assets

The Organization adopted Accounting Standards Codification 825 “Financial Instruments” (ASC 825). ASC 825 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value and gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 825 are as follows:

Level 1 Inputs that reflect unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access at the measurement date;

Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly, including inputs in markets that are not considered to be active;

Level 3 Inputs that are unobservable.

Inputs are used in applying the various techniques and broadly refer to the assumptions that market participants use to make valuation decisions, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may include price information, volatility, statistics, specific and broad credit data, liquidity statistics, and other factors. A financial instrument’s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. However, the determination of what constitutes “observable” requires significant judgment by management. Management considers observable data to be that market data, which is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market. The categorization of a financial instrument within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the instrument and does not necessarily correspond to the manager’s perceived risk of that instrument.

In making the aforementioned valuations, management will consult with their brokers, investment managers and various other entities in analyzing data which determines fair market values.

Fair values of assets measured on a recurring basis at December 31, 2020 are as follows:

	Fair Value	Quoted Prices In Active Markets For Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Investments - Cash and Money Markets	$ 114,546	$ 114,546	$---	$---
